

Bridge Structure - Syracuse NE

River Bridge – Orchard, NE

Railroad Overpass - Norfolk, NE

BRIDGE DESIGN ENGINEER

Mainelli Wagner & Associates is a growing civil engineering firm in search of a bridge design engineer in Lincoln, Nebraska. Our reputation in the local engineering and construction industries is second to none, and we are seeking individuals that will help us grow, while maintaining that reputation.

Candidates should be honest, hard-working, team players that are capable of multi-tasking and learning new things. Daily duties may include: project and staff management; customer relations; complete plan development and design on a variety of bridge and roadway improvement projects.

Applicants who possess experience and knowledge of the following skills are encouraged to apply:

- Design analysis and calculations to support a variety of bridge designs
- Structural plan and detail development for various types of bridges
- Coordination with owners, engineers, and construction managers
- Experience with MicroStation desirable
- Adhere to a strict quality control requirements

Applicants should possess a BS or MS degree in civil engineering, and 3 or more years of experience in bridge design. Additionally, applicants should be a licensed Professional Engineer in Nebraska, or have to ability to become licensed within 6-months. A valid driver's license is required; employees may be required to travel.

Mainelli, Wagner & Associates is an equal opportunity employer and provides its employees with competitive pay and benefit plans.

Please, send your resume to:

Mainelli Wagner & Associates, Inc.

Attn: Matt Manning

6920 Van Dorn Street

Lincoln, NE 68506

Or Email to: mmanning@mwaeng.com